

Please insert the city where you live, so that geographic location can be taken into consideration when viewing the results. (If you would prefer to keep your city hidden, please type "random" in the box)	How many hours per week would you say you are involved in any kind of community service?	If you answered 0, please check any areas in which you would be interested in volunteering/serving. If you answered more than 0, please check any areas in which you are currently involved.	If you answered 0, how might someone encourage you to become involved in community service? If you answered anything more than 0, how did you first become involved?	Is anyone in your immediate family or close friend circle involved in community service?	Approximately how many charity organizations exist within your community (that you are aware of)?	If you could choose any charity, issue, organization, group, or individual to support/promote, who/what would it be?	If you know someone—or are someone—who is not involved in their community in any way, why do you suppose that is? (Please check all that apply)	What does "Community Service" mean to you? (This can be as long or as short as you wish).	Would you like to learn more about how to become more involved in your community?
